

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 14, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2096 - SB 2630

This bill, if enacted, will require additional educational training to any state employee who does not have a high school degree or equivalent and who is transferred to another position which has this requirement to prepare them to take and complete the exams to obtain a G.E.D., at no cost to the employee. The training will be conducted during working hours and whenever possible at the worksite or within a 25 mile radius. Additional training shall be provided after failing the G.E.D. exam one time.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to result in an increase in state expenditures; however, such increase cannot be determined but is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
